Echoes of Fateful Meeting

There are hints in well-informed quarters in Ottawa that Canada's Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. William L. Mackenzie King, may be playing the same fateful role in the current conversations leading to momentous decisions in the President, Truman, of the United States, and Premier Clement Atlee of Great Britain, as the head of the Canadian Government played in familiar manner in the days prior to what was during the last World War II, with great significance being given in such well-informed quarters on Parliament Hill to the suggestion that the conversations might be restricted not in the least only to the question of atomic energy, but that talks might have included a whole field of international relations that economic, financial and political issues of the day may be involved. In other words, it is hinted that time alone will decide if the Canadian Prime Minister had played a far more important role in settling world peace than most fact-finders in the history of our generation than it is possible to disclose now. In proper details, especially in connection with those forces which desire a world organization or government for all mankind, so that nations may march forward in progressive stages in peacetime in time with the march of science as symbolized by the invention of the atomic bomb.

Wives of Servicemen

It is reported that there has been no system of priority for officers' wives over the wives of others in transportation arrangements to the United Kingdom to Canada, though such an impression seems to prevail. This is the Defence Minister, Hon. Douglas Abbott, who also revealed that there are in Britain over 21,000 wives and 8,270 children of servicemen at the time of the last count, though already no less than about 15,000 wives and children had been brought to this country.

Considerable Confusion

As a result of false rumours, it is revealed in Ottawa that the wrong impression has been created that the National Employment Office creates jobs for veterans and others across Canada.

whereas in reality this National Employment Office has the task merely of distributing available jobs. This is mentioned at this time since there are reports that discharged service personnel had been offered inferior jobs at very low rates of pay, and the remark that some of these rumours of investigation turn out to be anything but false. Nevertheless, such rumours do tend to undermine the confidence of the veteran seeking employment so that their flat rejection is in the public interest.

Help For Europe

In answer to a plea that the Government of Canada should endeavour to do more in order to help war-torn Europe, the Minister of Finance, Hon. J. L. Ivey, has disclosed in Parliament that the Government has never taken a narrow view of its contribution to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA), and this nation has agreed to pay a second contribution of about $75,000,000. "It is a question how far the people of Canada should be asked to go in these matters," said in part Mr. Ivey. "But consideration will be given to the Government's suggestion." He was referring to a request that even more should be done for war-stricken Europe than it is now the case, though the Minister pointed out that Canada had contributed most rationing in Canada for this reason, made the heavy contribution to the UNRRA, and held a national clothing drive only recently.

Reasons For Action

Since the leader of the Official Opposition, Hon. John Bracken, had requested the tabling by the Government of all Orders-In-Council and Treasury Board minutes since September 6 last and

REMEMBRANCE DAY CHURCH SERVICE

The usual Remembrance Day church service was held on Sunday afternoon last, Nov. 11th, at 2 p.m., in the Olympia Theatre. There was a good attendance of the public and veterans of the First and Second World Wars. Proceedings commenced with a short address by Rev. T. Taylor, and reading from the hymn book.

"O Canada" was sung, and afterwards prayer by Rev. T. Taylor, ending with the Lord's Prayer, and responses by the congregation.

Then followed the hymn, "O Talented Hearts," with Rev. T. Taylor presiding at the piano, and Com. De Forest of Drumheller, accompanying on the organ.

The lesson was taken from Revelations, Chapter VII, and read by Rev. W. H. Moss, M.A., R.D. of Drumheller, who was the special speaker for the Remembrance Day occasion.

There was a full choir in attendance, which rendered very nicely Kipling's beautiful hymn, "God of Our Fathers."

Rev. Mr. Moss then preached an eloquent and impressive sermon. His theme was: "The glory shall not be blotted out; their names shall live for evermore." He said that it was Canada that we are privileged to meet together in peace. We are remembering more people today than on any Nov. 11th. They were gathered there that afternoon in remembrance of those who gave their lives in two wars. It is only now we are beginning to realize the peace we have known for our freedom. He gave a lengthy address, and his remarks throughout were listened to with great interest.

After Memorial Prayer by the Rev. T. Taylor.

Mejor L. Newman was asked to take part, who said on this day of Remembrance he as not forgot the men who laid down their lives in the First Great War and Second Great War. He read aloud the names of those men from Delia and Cragville districts who lost their lives in both wars, and ended by repeating the Veterans' Creed.

Last Post was sounded by Com. De Forest, followed by two minutes silence.

After the closing hymn, a collection was taken up, which was announced by Rev. W. H. Moss.

On emerging from the hall, under the command of Major Newman, the veterans formed up and marched to the Cenotaph where a short service was held. A wreath was placed at the base of the memorial by members of the local branch of the Legion.

This service was turned down, it should be pointed out that the spokesman for the Government, stated in Parliament that such a "blanket request" may involve the use of six stenographers for two months at the rate of $100 per man, such as some copies may be made as soon as possible. Then, again, it has been argued that similar requests from Sir Henry Drayton when he was acting as Opposition leader in 1936, and when he was in 1938, and when he was in 1940, and when he was in 1941, ALCATRAZ ESCAPE

And then the cool slurs were being around him and he felt safe.

He swam straight out for a dried yards—then he removed clothes—nearly drowning in the e. Free, finally, his teeth drew back smart. He'd come through again, he always came through.

And then he reached it. He turned and thrust his nose at the faraway black shape of the Island, his white teeth showing in effect laughter. "Crying to hold him, Brownson, on an island!" A typical dumb cop's trick. Everything had worked out perfectly. Kooling had left the clothes where Brownson had told him to. Then, timing his break, Brownson had

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sobey, Landon, live in what might be called a "roaming house" — a 32-seater motor coach. They have a good time on all six wheels, and they can roam where they will. They were bumped out of the city by the city council, and took a smart bus motor to look out the seals and sold them. They staled a new little Lincoln car. They have a new house in Lewis and Clark. Next spring they may move their "roaming house" to the warm, sunny places of the south.

into Bronson had been juggled. He stepped right into Bronson's shoes. Bronson patted the gun in his pocket and said, "I'll take care of you, you gain. Dillon would have to come down a peg."

Brownson sat behind a big desk—Armaments and radar fire-control systems of the 8,000-ton cruiser of the 'Tiger' class, were covered with canvas screens.

Ironson was so mad he forgot to be careful. He stood up, placing his hand on the desk. That young punk!

"Wouldn't that he just cooey, huh?"

The origin of how a ship came to be called "she" can probably be traced back to the Greek mariners who gave their ships feminine names.

◆ Our information agency was reached, October 22 as reported in the Montreal Star. The man who discovered the tree cut in the forest was a forestry worker, with extreme prejudice. Mr. Porter's death was grossly exaggerated. He suffered from arthritis at Emerson, Mass., on August 24, according to the Boston Herald.

The point is, in all circumstances, the U.S. military has been very careful not to have created their own league of nations, that their great demand for the use of force is not a lighting stance regardless of national boundaries. It is a war on evil, and even were it possible, which is not, to have a league of nations, it would be a single nation rather than the United States.

FACTORY DESTROYED

United States army engineers have blown up a $2,500,000 underground shelter for the German army in Germany, destroyed by the United States for the use of the German army on August 28, the last German rocket fighter plane. It was announced that the shelter was destroyed.

The second new casualty from the German army was a German soldier who had been killed in the first day other than true, but has a high probability of being killed.

ARMISTICE - A MILESTONE FOR PEACE

On Armistice day we remember those who have given their lives in two world wars. It is a day of remembrance, a day when we pause to think of our friends and relatives who have died for their country. It is a day when we reflect on the sacrifices that have been made for peace and freedom.

As the days go by, events happen which mould the future. They may be small events, a single act of kindness, or they may be great events, a war, a revolution. But they all shape the future, and it is up to us to make the most of them.

As the days go by, events happen which mould the future. They may be small events, a single act of kindness, or they may be great events, a war, a revolution. But they all shape the future, and it is up to us to make the most of them.
